You Would Feel So Much Better

By Jason Patrick Hilburn

Even for Christians, it is easy to focus on ourselves, feel self-pity, and think about how bad things are. It is good to remember that there are surely others who have worse circumstances than we do. Let us focus on ways we can help others and remember how blessed we are. If we start feeling sad in our own little world, we would feel so much better if we would:

- Think about others around the world who are struggling with various problems.
- Help someone else with some physical need.
- Help someone else by encouraging them (card, call, visit, online message, etc.).
- Tell someone that you love and appreciate them.
- Help others by praying for them.
- Take good care of the physical body God gave you.
- Read God's Word and let Him speak to you through His Holy Scriptures.
- Attend the assemblies of a sound congregation and worship

God with your brothers and sisters.

- Repent and be reconciled to God if necessary.
- Pray and leave all cares with God. Do what is within your power the best you can and stop worrying about things you cannot control.
- Try not to complain, but rather meditate on all the blessings God has given and thank Him in prayer through Jesus.

Here are some inspired passages to consider: Job; Matthew 6:25-34; 22:36-40; 25:34-40; Luke 10:25-37; 18:1; Romans 1:8; 1 Corinthians 10:10-13; 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; 4:16-18; Galatians 6:1, 2; Ephesians 4:28-32; 5:20; Philippians 2:3-8, 14; 4:4-13; 1 Thessalonians 5:18; 2 Timothy 2:15; Hebrews 10:23-25; James 1:2-4; 4:14; 5:7-11, 13, 16; 1 Peter 5:7.

A Few Words from Jason

I hope that we all are praying constantly for the world, and specifically for our nation. 2020 was a challenging year in many ways, and we can be sure that more challenges lie ahead, if time continues. In the midst of the chaos, God is our Rock.

"The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted" (Psa. 18:46).

"Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer. From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I. For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy" (Psa. 61:1-3).

"Truly my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation. He only is my rock and my salvation; he is my defence; I shall not be greatly moved...My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him. He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved. In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God. Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah" (Psa. 62:1, 2, 5-8).

God alone can bring peace and stability to our lives, even in the face of death: "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me" (Psa. 23:4; cf. Php. 4:4-13). Let us trust in Him in all things as we dedicate our lives to Him (Prov. 3:5, 6; Rom. 12:1, 2).

Below are some of the people who connected for last week's class from Florida to India. We continue to have good attendance and participation. However, brother Vandan Kumar, the faithful brother who translates, was not feeling very well, so we ended without taking questions this time.
