A Few Words from Jason

Three more souls in Pakistan are on their way to Heaven! Two men (named Goshi and Shahbaz) who had been attending our online classes to Pakistan for months decided they needed to leave "The Protestant Church," which is a man-made church with man-made doctrines. They realized that in the past they had not been taught correctly about how to be saved. They were baptized into Christ by a brother named Saleem, who lives closer to them than Khokhar Shahid. Also, another man was baptized into Christ in Multan, Pakistan, who had not attended the classes, but was taught by the Christians there. All glory belongs to God, and we thank Him for the increase. "So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase" (1 Cor. 3:7). Pictured are Goshi and Shahbaz with Saleem in white.

STEPS OF SALVATION: FROM SINNER TO SAVED

"...ye were the servants of sin..."
(Romans 6:17).

What must I do to be saved?!

"...but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness" (Rom. 6:17b-18).

Satan Perverts Our Thoughts About Being in Worship

By Victor Eskew

Satan is a master when it comes to enabling man to oppose God. He tries to manipulate man's thoughts. He creates reasons and excuses that "sound" good. He makes us think that we are okay. He causes us to assume that God is well-pleased with us. We think all is well, and all the time Satan smiles.

Here are some things that Satan convinces us are true that enable us to forsake the worship services without hardly batting an eye.

1. Worship is boring.
2. Worship is the same thing over and over again.
3. I do not get anything out of worship.
4. I can worship the next time the doors are open.
5. There are some things that are more important than worship.
6. Worship does not need to consume a person's life.
7. No one misses me when I am not in worship.
8. Many worshipers are just hypocrites.
9. Not being in worship will not condemn my soul.
10. I have to be "in the mood" to really worship.
11. I serve God in other ways than being in worship services.
12. Worship is for women, children, and the elderly.
13. Worship is never at a convenient time in my schedule.

14. Worship is filled with "holier than thou" people.
15. There are a lot of "Christians" who do not go to worship.
16. I am a good person even though I don't go to worship.
17. God understands why I do not attend worship.
18. If I do go to worship, then they will want more out of me.
19. God can be worshiped anywhere on Sunday.
20. Worship is done in the heart, not in a church building.

Question: Can any of the thoughts listed above be supported by the teachings of God's Word? If not, they do not come from the mind of God. If not from the mind of God, where do they come from?

Yes, Satan has a way to influence our thoughts when it comes to worshipping God. It is just one way Satan attacks his enemy. He loves it when the creature refuses to honor the Creator. He rejoices when the redeemed refuses to pay homage to the Redeemer. He laughs when then worshiper ignores the one who is worthy of worship.

Has Satan subverted your thinking about worship? Perhaps today is the day to change your thinking processes. Today is the day to tell Satan: "I love my God. He has saved me. From now on, I will worship Him faithfully in the beauty of holiness."
—Slightly adapted

"Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase" (1 Corinthians 3:5-7).
