A Few Words from Jason

There was no bulletin last week since I was out of town attending the Mt. Zion lectureship in Savannah, TN. I'm very thankful Amanda, Katelynn, and Rick were also able to go, and maybe next year more people from Baker can attend, Lord willing. It was a very uplifting, encouraging event.

The Baker congregation is blessed to have sound brothers who are quite capable of filling the pulpit in my absence. I never have to worry about what will be taught while I am gone. That is a great blessing to both me and the congregation. Thanks to Mark Howze and Johnny Moss for teaching and preaching while I was gone. I heard they did a great job.

This week's article will be continued next week, Lord willing. It comes from the website JonGaryWilliams.com, which has a lot of great information on it.

Please be praying for those suffering in India and Pakistan after the flooding. We are especially concerned about Shahid and others who are facing health problems on top of property damage, unsanitary conditions, lack of supplies, etc.

Premillennialism Examined (Part 1)

By Jon Gary Williams

The word Premillennialism comes from "pre" (before) and "millennial" (1000). Some contend that after Christ returns, a 1000-year utopia period will begin, during which He will reign on a literal throne at Jerusalem; hence, Christ's coming, as well as other particular events, will allegedly occur "before the millennium."
